CAPE ANN ARTISANS STUDIO GUIDE

Cape Ann Artisans are members of a thriving, vibrant arts community, located along the scenic North Shore of Massachusetts that includes four state-designated cultural districts. Come visit us, explore our exquisite natural surroundings, and see the fine art and craft inspired here. Many Artisans are open year round; during non-tour times please call for an appointment to view our work.

- 1 Ruth Worrall | Pottery
354 Magnolia Avenue, Gloucester
978.491.7113 | rworrall4@yahoo.com

In her West Gloucester studio Ruth uses stoneware and porcelain to create functional and ornamental pottery. In addition to wheel thrown pieces she is working with slab building, painted pottery, carving, and sculpting. Ruth's pottery is functional and lends a sense of comfort and artistic expression to the home.

- 2 Bart Stuyf | Sculpture
16 Mussel Point Way, Gloucester
978.281.8089 | bartswork.com

Elephants, pigs and dragons have joined the octopuses, birds, fish and frogs who continue to frequent Bart's seaside studio. You never know who or what will appear but whether flora or fauna, Bart's creations are sure to delight and amuse. Please stop by and enjoy. Open by appointment, year round.

- 3 Beth Williams | Handmade Glass Beads and Jewelry
17 Pleasant Street, Gloucester
978.283.5566 | bethwilliams.com

Through the iron gate and charming flower-filled brick courtyard...discover this jewel of a glass studio tucked away immersed in a kaleidoscope of color. Texture, light, color...all play together to highlight the art-glass jewelry and beads

Beth creates in the Venetian tradition — with a contemporary flair. It's all about the color!

- 4 Sinikka Nogelo | Paintings and Wall Pieces
97 E. Main Street #4, Gloucester
978.761.3003 | sinikkanogelo.com

Unique contemporary paintings and experimental works of art are what you'll find in Sinikka's studio on Cripple Cove. Inspired by nature, and all aspects of life, Sinikka uses media freely, including recyclables, metallics, and shredded paper in her repertoire. Come and see.

- 5 Rob Diebboll | Oil and Watercolor Painting
1 Camborne Way, Rockport (Studio on South St.)
978.559.1881 | robdiebboll.com

Rob explores the interplay between landscape and figure at the water's edge. His colorful, contemporary oils reveal relationships between people and their world, one individual and another, the viewer and the subject, shapes and colors.

6 Twin Lights Studio | Pottery and Sculpture
52 South Street, Rockport
978.546.1352 | twinlightsstudio@msn.com

Scott and Erin make pots in porcelain and stoneware. Experience a combination of form and function while viewing a unique collection of ceramic art ranging from lobster and fish studies to garden-inspired vessels. Classes are offered year-round for all ages, as well as several week-long kids' events during the summer.

9 Sara Wright | Fiber Wrights
22 Stockholm Avenue, Rockport
978.590.4786 | fiberwrights.com

Original handwoven and handknit accessories for wardrobe and home, created using contemporary application of color and texture with traditional textile techniques and novelty yarns. Items include scarves, sweaters, coats, and shawls as well as throws and bed coverings.

7 Pam Stratton | Mosaics
16A Prospect Street, Rockport
978.546.7582 | pamstrattonmosaics.com

Explore Pam's beautiful garden and mosaic studio. Outside, tucked around the Koi pond, you will find granite mosaic garden sculptures and a 4' x 6' pond mosaic. In the studio discover functional and modern fine art mosaics in stone and Italian glass. Classes offered year round.

8 Cynthia Curtis | Stoneware Pottery
80 Pigeon Hill Street, Rockport
978.546.6186 | cynthiacurtispottery.com

Cynthia creates ocean inspired pottery at her peaceful studio for collectors and gift-givers near and far. In addition to her popular beachglass pottery, she is excited to evolve her brown stoneware "Sea Fossil" collection. Gallery opened by chance or appointment and classes offered to all ages and abilities year round.

10 David Archibald | Porcelain and Stoneware
9 Woodbury Street, Gloucester
978.283.5746 | davearch12@comcast.net

Combining his yellow glaze with celadon, David has discovered two exciting and highly original new looks for this year's display. Black, red and green glazes produce vibrant contrast. As usual, Plum Cove Pottery is open most afternoons during summer and fall, and always, year round, with a phone call.

11 Anni Melançon | Dogtown Studio Pottery
1181 Washington Street, Gloucester
978.281.3512 | claycats@aol.com

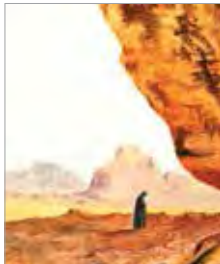

Pottery for collectors, the table and the kitchen. Anni works in series, creating functional and art vessels in a variety of clays and techniques. Handbuilt with slabs or thrown on the wheel, often altered or textured, traditional and Asian glazes on high-fired stoneware and porcelain.

“ This was a great way to get to know more about the community where I live. Every artist was warm and welcoming and so inspiring. The weekend was a wonderful experience. — a recent tour visitor ”

12 Mi Robertson | Painting & Sculpture

63 Langsford Street, Gloucester
978.944.2389 | Mibertson@aol.com

Sculptures are small-scale using mixed media including natural objects, copper and steel. Paintings are of landscape and still-life, some portraits. Open by appointment during the year.

15 Judith Wright | Mosaics, Pastels, Oils and Jewelry

12R Sunset Point Road, Gloucester
978.283.9430 | info@applebaydesign.com

In Judith's studio by the ocean you will find paintings, colorful timeless jewelry, as well as tables, birdbaths, and other items enhanced by rich mosaic design. Her latest mosaic project is decorating granite rocks for your garden or doorstep. Follow signs to find parking. Open by appointment during the year.

13 Margaret Rack | Sculpture and Wire Drawings

8 Ships Bell Road, Gloucester
978-282-0630 | margaret.rack@gmail.com

In Marge's studio facing Ipswich Bay, visitors will find sculptures and drawings exploring themes of shelter, displacement and improvisation. Inspired by recent travels in Cambodia, she uses wood, paper, wire and fiber to build colorful evocative pieces. Open by appointment during the year.

16 Mary Ann de Buy Wenniger | Collagraph Prints, Encaustics, Oil Paintings

70 Holly Street, Gloucester
978.281.1181 | wennigercottagegallery.com

Printmaking is Mary Ann's magic medium. No two prints are alike. She uses oil paints on textured collagraph plates created from found materials. The interaction of color and pattern on the paper surface produces unexpected and unique results. This collagraph was from cut-outs from a poster advertising hub caps. Classes offered monthly.

14 Camilla MacFadyen | Hand Printed Textiles

16R Langsford Street, Gloucester
978.290.6595 | camillamacfadyen.com

Camilla's textile studio is a vibrantly colored retreat. Exploring methods of printmaking, Camilla balances the precision of small batch silk screening with experiments using seaweed collagraphs and gelatin plate monotypes. She produces wearables, large wall panels, tea towels, dolls, t-shirts and more.

17 Jacqueline Ganim-DeFalco | Sea Glass Wearable Art

44 Thurston Pt. Road, Gloucester
978.283.8333 | capeannndesigns.com

As an artisan and collector of sea glass, I create distinctive, functional wearable art that celebrates the natural characteristics of the materials, reflects the indigenous beauty and authenticity of the region, providing a consistent connection point for residents and visitors. Follow me @capeannart

“ We were delighted when — over and over again — a studio that we dropped by simply because it was on the route we were taking, turned out to be a little jewel.— a 2015 tour visitor
