CAPE ANN ARTISANS STUDIO GUIDE

Cape Ann Artisans are members of a thriving, vibrant arts community, located along the scenic North Shore of Massachusetts that includes four state-designated cultural districts. Come visit us, explore our exquisite natural surroundings, and see the fine art and craft inspired here. Many Artisans are open year round; during non-tour times please call for an appointment to view our work.

- 1 Bond Street Studio | Fine Art Photography, Watercolor and Mixed Media
38 Bond Street, Gloucester
978.281.1188 | www.newmoongreetings.com/BondStreet

Lots of changes going on at Bond Street Studio. Terry's painting has evolved into a more expressionistic and contemporary style — very unique. David's been busy creating his photographic "Dreamscapes." These are created with a camera he had converted specifically for B&W infrared photography. The path leading to Bond Street Studio is an interesting journey in and of itself. Open by appointment, year round.

- 2 Marcie Rae | Jewelry

101 Hesperus Avenue, Gloucester, MA 01930
603.765.7784 | marcieaugust03@gmail.com

As a League of NH Juried jeweler for 17 years, Marcie joins the CAA tours for the second year in her new jewelry studio near the ocean. Her jewelry blends ancient and contemporary techniques in silver and gold, accented by colorful innovative materials. Her newest work includes small wall pieces hand chased and repoussé.

- 3 Ruth Worrall | Pottery
16 Mussel Point Way, Gloucester
978.491.7113 | rworrall4@yahoo.com

In addition to her functional ceramics, Ruth continues to happily explore her saggar work...firing pieces in a confined atmosphere within a container letting smoke, fire and chance decorate the surface of her pots, a process much too exciting to stop. An added plus is that Ruth's transitional studio has been generously provided by the wonderful Amy and kindhearted Bart Stuyf.

- 4 Bart Stuyf | Sculpture
16 Mussel Point Way, Gloucester
978.281.8089 | bartswork.com

Strike up the band! Come join us at Bart's seaside studio to see the frog band and all the other copper critters and creations. And as a special treat, this year, we will be hosting Ruth Worrall and her beautiful pottery. Open by appointment, year round.

- 5 Beth Williams | Handmade Glass Beads and Jewelry
17 Pleasant Street, Gloucester
978.283.5566 | bethwilliams.com

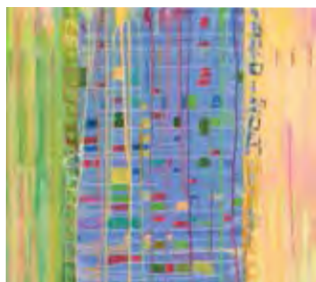

Discover this jewel of a glass studio tucked away immersed in a kaleidoscope of color. Texture, light, color...all play together to highlight the art-glass jewelry and beads Beth creates in the Venetian tradition — with a contemporary flair. It's all about the color!

6 Sinikka Nogelo | Paintings and Wall Pieces

97 E. Main Street #4, Gloucester
978.761.3003 | sinikkanogelo.com

New abstract paintings! New 3D experimental art! Oil and acrylic. Found objects and recyclables. At beautiful Cripple Cove on Gloucester's working waterfront. In summer, the water shuttle's just steps away.

7 Rob Diebboll | Oil and Watercolor Painting

1 Camborne Way, Rockport (Studio on South St.)
978.559.1881 | robdiebboll.com

Rob explores the interplay between landscape and figure at the water's edge. His colorful, contemporary oils and watercolors reveal the Cape Ann coast in a different light: luminous, peaceful, subtle, and surprising.

8 Twin Lights Studio | Pottery and Sculpture

52 South Street, Rockport
978.546.1352 | twinlightsstudio@msn.com

Scott and Erin make pots in porcelain and stoneware. Experience a combination of form and function while viewing a unique collection of ceramic art ranging from lobster and fish studies to garden inspired vessels. Classes are offered year round for all ages as well as several week long kids events during the summer.

9 Pam Stratton | Mosaics

16A Prospect Street, Rockport
978.546.7582 | pamstrattonmosaics.com

Explore Pam's beautiful garden and mosaic studio. Outside tucked around the Koi pond you will discover granite mosaic garden sculptures, and a 4' x 6' pond mosaic. In the studio discover functional and modern fine art mosaics in stone and Italian glass. Classes offered year round.

10 Elizabeth Harty | Paintings and Prints

159 Main Street, Rockport
978.546.6020 | elizabethharty.com

Colorful mixed media paintings and textural, boldly colorful original prints are featured at this upper Main Street Studio. Archival, limited edition, signed reproductions are available. Classes are offered and commissions are welcomed.

11 Cynthia Curtis | Stoneware Pottery

80 Pigeon Hill Street, Rockport
978.546.6186 | cynthiacurtispottery.com

Celebrating her 23rd year as a full-time potter and teacher, Cynthia creates ocean-inspired pottery for collectors and gift-givers at her tranquil studio. She is known for her colorful Beach Glass pottery and continues to expand her brown stoneware SeaFossil collection. Gallery open by chance or appointment and classes offered to all ages and abilities year round.

12 Sara Wright | Fiber Wrights

22 Stockholm Avenue, Rockport
978.590.4786 | sarawright.fiberwrights@gmail.com

Handwoven and original hand-knit accessories for wardrobe and home, created using contemporary application of color and texture with traditional textile techniques and novelty yarns. Items include scarves, sweaters, coats, and shawls as well as throws and bed coverings.

13 David Archibald | Porcelain and Stoneware
9 Woodbury Street, Gloucester
978.283.5746 | plumcovepottery.com

This year's display includes an exciting granite-like glaze, adding to last year's gold-on-celadon and the familiar red, black and rust combinations. The showroom sparkles with a rich color range from soft to brilliantly intense. These glazes adorn a variety of lamps, vases, pitchers, platters, jars, and many types of bowls. Open most afternoons during summer and fall.

14 Anni Melançon | Dogtown Studio Pottery
1181 Washington Street, Gloucester
978.281.3512 | claycats@aol.com

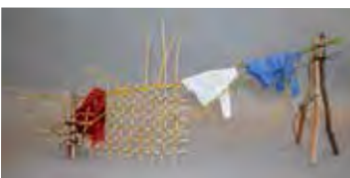

Functional pottery for cooking, serving, and custom dinnerware, art vessels for the collector, in a variety of clays and techniques. Anni works in series, handbuilding with slabs or thrown on the wheel, with reduction-fired traditional and Asian glazes on stoneware and porcelain.

15 Mi Robertson | Painting and Sculpture
63 Langsford Street, Gloucester
978.944.2389 | Mibertson@aol.com

Sculptures are small-scale using mixed media including natural objects, copper and steel. Paintings are of landscape and still-life, some portraits. Open by appointment during the year.

16 Margaret Rack | Sculpture and Wire Drawings
8 Ships Bell Road, Gloucester
978-282-0630 | margaret.rack@gmail.com

In Marge's studio facing Ipswich Bay, visitors will find sculptures and drawings exploring themes of shelter, displacement and improvisation. Inspired by recent travels in Cambodia, she uses wood, paper, wire and fiber to build colorful evocative pieces. Open by appointment during the year.

17 Deborah Gonet | Mixed Media
10 Ships Bell Road, Gloucester
339.927.8707 | deborahgonet@gmail.com

Oil, watercolor ink, polyethylene fiber, graphite, fabric and transfers are just a few of the mediums Deborah works with to create contemporary wall pieces in her Lanesville studio. Using a variety of techniques in each encaustic layer, every piece differs in level of complexity, color and texture.

18 Camilla MacFadyen | Hand Printed Textiles
16R Langsford Street, Gloucester
978.290.6595 | camillamacfadyen.com

Camilla's colorful studio is brimming with projects big and small. Large textile wall panels, hand made wearables and more. Silk screened, seaweed printed, gelatin printed, embroidered and appliqué. An ever-changing oasis of textiles inspired by Cape Ann.

19 Mary Ann de Buy Wenniger | Collagraph Prints, Encaustics, Oil Paintings
70 Holly Street, Gloucester
978.281.1181 | wennigercottagegallery.com

Mary Ann's signature collagraphs, pastels and oils offer poetic versions of Cape Ann's coves, clotheslines, laborers, moonlit beaches, flowering landscapes and colorful abstracts. Fridays and CAA tours she demonstrates printmaking on her press. Classes all ages. Spring tour show, "Aprons With Attitude."

20 Jacqueline Ganim-DeFalco | Sea Glass Wearable Art
44 Thurston Pt. Road, Gloucester
978.283.8333 | capeanndesigns.com

From my collection of sea glass treasures, I create distinctive, functional wearable art that celebrates the natural characteristics of the materials, reflects the indigenous beauty and history of the region, and provides a liaison to the past for residents and visitors. Follow me @capeannart
